Sponsorship contributions can be designated for use in support of the I Cantori Scholarship in Choral Music. This award, which covers full tuition for one year, goes to an outstanding music student at Armstrong Atlantic University who is preparing for a career in choral music. The award winner for 1997-98 is Tim Wheelles. The past winners are Sonia Yoder, who is in her first year of teaching as the choral director at Groves High School, and Darren Harrison, who is scheduled to graduate this year.

I Cantori also welcomes support for our ongoing project of commissioning new compositions by eminent choral composers. In 1995 we premiered "Four Fragments from John Donne" by Daniel Pinkham.

In the Spring of 1996 we had the honor of presenting the first performance of "And the White Rose Is a Dove" which was commissioned from Williametta Spencer, and in December we presented the premier of "Hodie" by Vaclav Nehlybel.

In 1997 I Cantori premiered a new work based on the Beatitudes commissioned from the Czech composer, Zdenek Lukas. I Cantori had the honor of premiering his "Requiem" four years ago. We also presented the premier performance of "Morning Star" by Vera Kistler. Peter Schickele has been commissioned for a new work which will be premiered on March 9 of 1998, with the composer in attendance. We are also joining with Temple Mickve Israel in commissioning a new setting of the Jewish Sacred Service by the Republic of Georgian composer, Joseph Bardanashvili. Significant donors can have their name included in the printed edition of the work when it is published. Any support is most welcome. For more information call 925-7866.

We would like to add your name to our mailing list so that we can inform you of upcoming concerts. Won't you please take the time to fill in the information on this form and give it to an usher or to one of the singers.
