

I Cantori is pleased to welcome students from South Effingham County High School to our folk song concerts. This year we are embarking on an outreach effort to encourage more student attendance at choral music programs. The cost of their tickets has been generously underwritten.

We are seeking to expand this program to all of the area high schools. If you would like to assist in this endeavor you may contribute to the "I Cantori Student Ticket Project" and the money will be dedicated to that purpose. Any contributions to I Cantori are tax deductible. Your support is greatly appreciated.

We are also proud to announce the "Vera Kistler Prize for Choral Composition." This annual competition, advertised nationally, will award a $750 prize for the winning choral composition by a young previously unpublished composer. The winning work will also receive its premier performance by I Cantori and will be published by National Music Publishers as part of the I Cantori Series which now has more than 20 works in its catalogue.
